

Danger danger!

Answers

- How can each dangerous creature kill you? Also, how can you kill them?
- Match the boxes on the left and right to the picture by drawing a line.

How they kill you

How you kill them

Describing zombies

Answers

Zombies

They are slow-walking brain-eating bloody-faced people.

Question 1: What kind of word is being used to describe zombies?

- a) Adjectives x
- b) Compound adjectives ✓
- c) Compound nouns x
- d) Phrasal verbs x

Question 2: “Slow-walking” is a word used to describe zombies. It describes:

- a) How a specific part of zombies often appears x
- b) An action zombies do and the manner of that action. ✓
- c) An action zombies do and what they do the action to. x

Question 3: “Brain-eating” is a word used to describe zombies. It describes:

- a) How a specific part of zombies often appears x
- b) An action zombies do and the manner of that action. x
- c) An action zombies do and what they do the action to. ✓

Question 4: “Bloody-faced” is a word used to describe zombies. It describes:

- a) How a specific part of zombies often appears ✓
- b) An action zombies do and the manner of that action. x
- c) An action zombies do and what they do the action to. x

Describing other dangerous creatures

Answers

 Vampires	 Werewolves	 Dragons
They are fierce-fighting blood-sucking white-skinned creatures.	They are man-eating quick-running wild-eyed monsters.	They are long-winged fast-flying fire-breathing monsters.

Question 1: Look at the descriptions above and find three compound adjectives that describe an action and the manner of that action.

Creature	Compound adjective
Vampires	fierce-fighting
Werewolves	quick-running
Dragons	fast-flying

Question 2: Look at the descriptions above and find three compound adjectives that describe an action and what the action is done to.

Creature	Compound adjective
Vampires	blood-sucking
Werewolves	man-eating
Dragons	fire-breathing

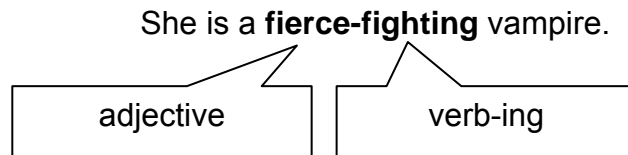

Question 3: Look at the descriptions above and find three compound adjectives that describe how a specific part of something appears.

Creature	Compound adjective
Vampires	white-skinned
Werewolves	wild-eyed
Dragons	long-winged

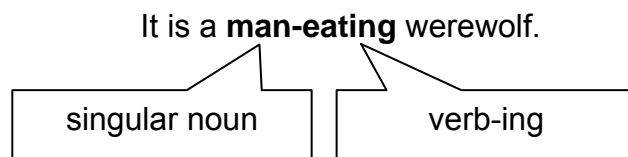

How to make compound adjectives

Answers

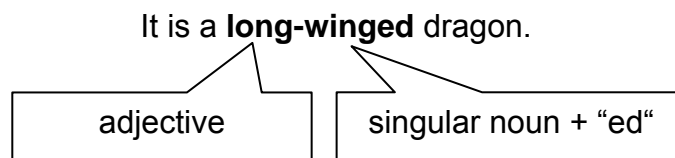

- 1) Show the structure of a compound adjective that describes an action and the manner of that action.

- 2) Show the structure of a compound adjective that describes an action and what the action is done to.

- 3) Show the structure of a compound adjective that describes how a specific part of something appears.

Practice using compound adjectives - part 1

Answers

Sentence 1: The werewolf runs fast.

Answer 1: It's a fast-running werewolf.

Sentence 2: The werewolf is jumping high.

Answer 2: It's a high-jumping werewolf.

Sentence 3: The zombie bites hard.

Answer 3: It's a hard-biting zombie.

Sentence 4: The dangerous zombie moans loudly.

Answer 4: It's a loud-moaning zombie.

Sentence 5: The strange creature thinks cleverly.

Answer 5: It's a clever-thinking creature.

Sentence 6: The smart creature speaks English fluently.

Answer 6: It's a fluent-speaking creature.

Practice using compound adjectives - part 2

Answers

Sentence 1: The monster eats cookies.

Answer 1: It's a cookie-eating monster.

Sentence 2: The monster is drinking milk.

Answer 2: It's a milk-drinking monster.

Sentence 3: The creature wears a cloak.

Answer 3: It's a cloak-wearing creature.

Sentence 4: The creepy creature is riding a horse.

Answer 4: It's a horse-riding creature.

Sentence 5: The giant gorilla just destroyed a plane.

Answer 5: It's a plane-destroying gorilla.

Sentence 6: The massive gorilla crushes tall buildings.

Answer 6: It's a building-crushing gorilla.

Practice using compound adjectives - part 3

Answers

Sentence 1: The clown has a red nose.

Answer 1: It's a red-nosed clown.

Sentence 2: The clown has sharp teeth.

Answer 2: It's a sharp-toothed clown.

Sentence 3: The yeti has red eyes.

Answer 3: It's a red-eyed yeti.

Sentence 4: The angry yeti has long arms.

Answer 4: It's a long-armed yeti.

Sentence 5: The frightening lady has an angry face.

Answer 5: She is an angry-faced lady.

Sentence 6: The terrifying lady has scary eyes.

Answer 6: She is a scary-eyed lady.

