

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Look like

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Look

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Like

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Watch

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

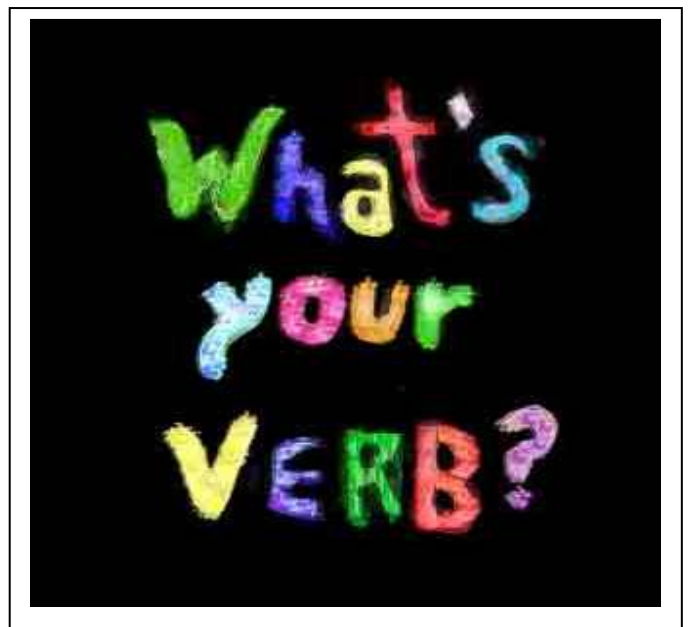

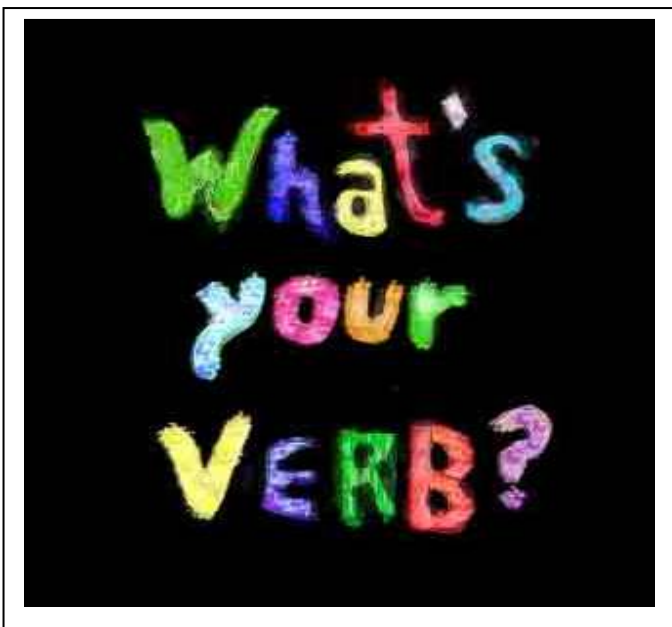

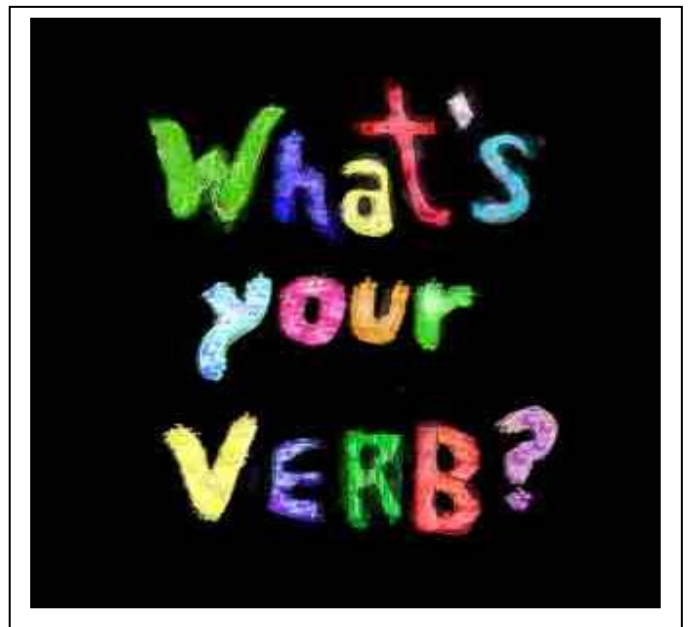

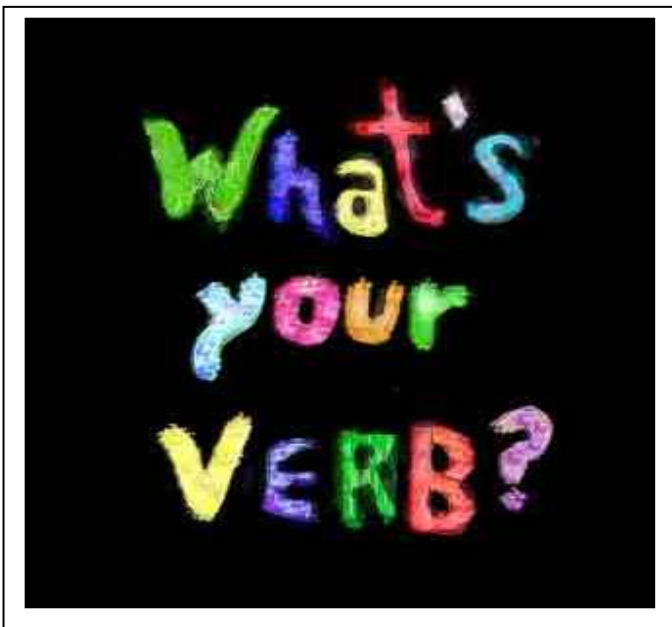

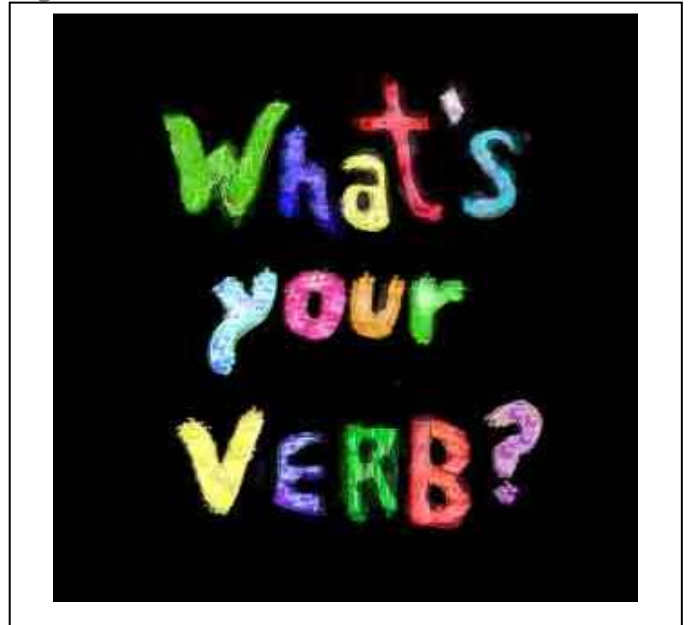

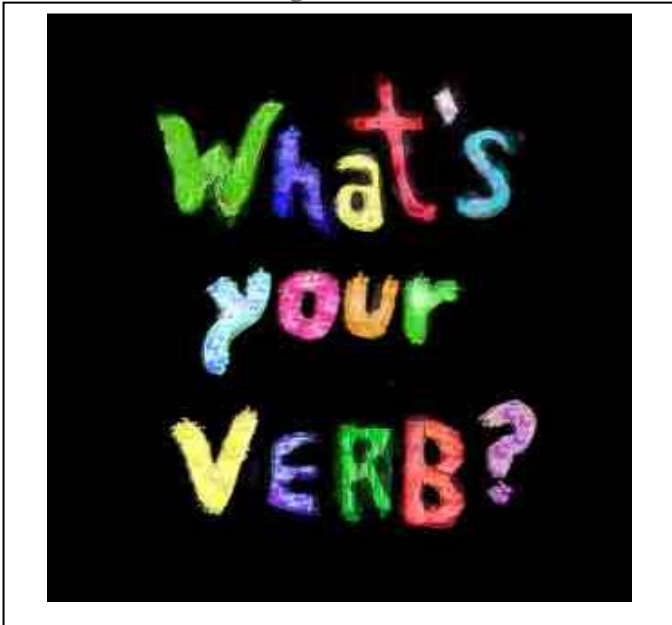

Hate

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Listen

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Be

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Jump

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Has

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Smile

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

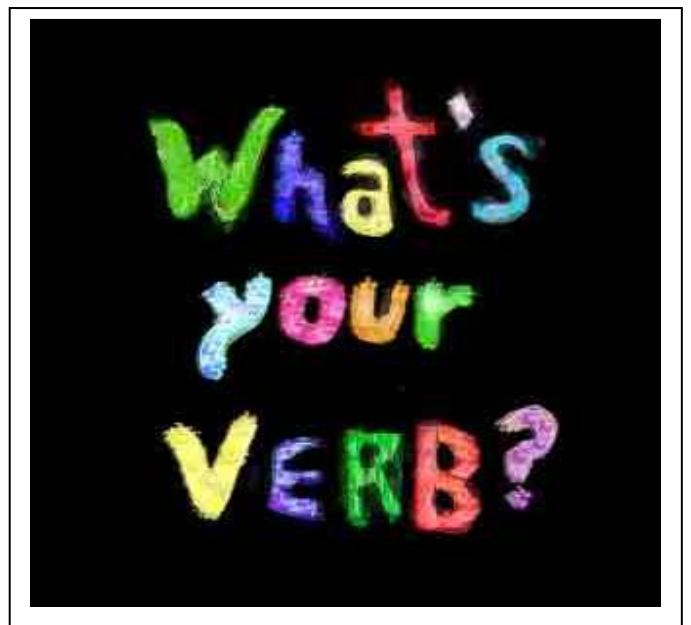

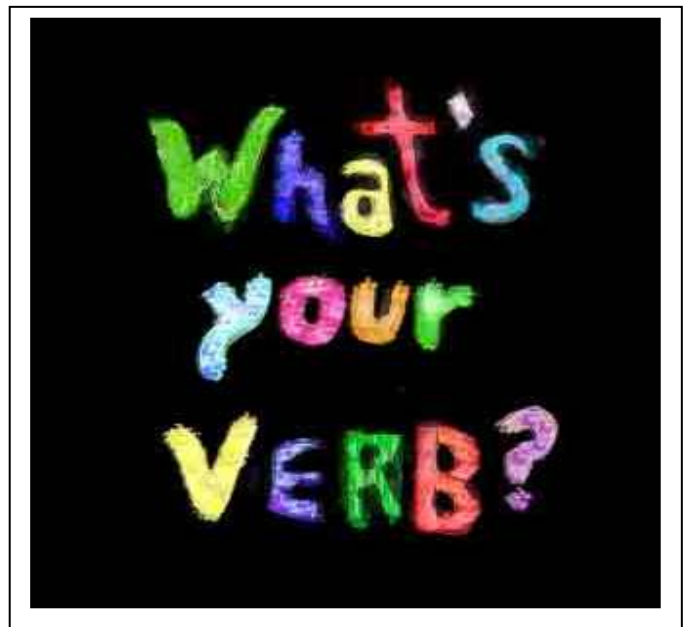

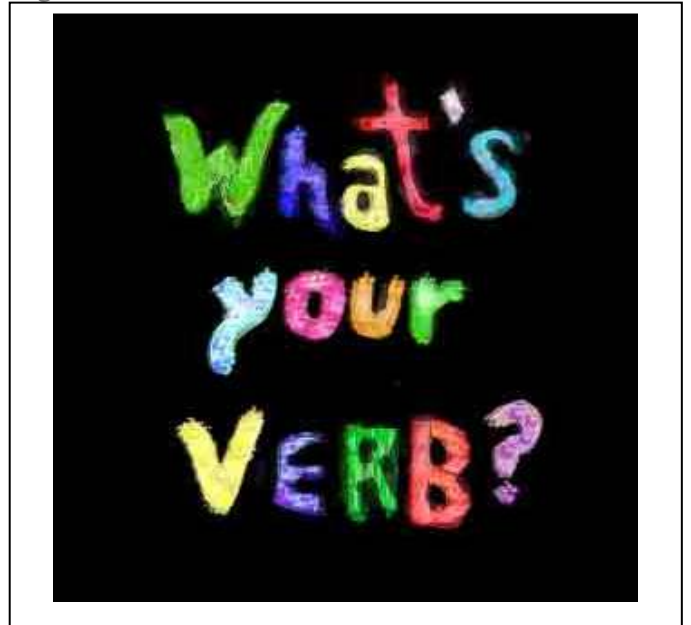

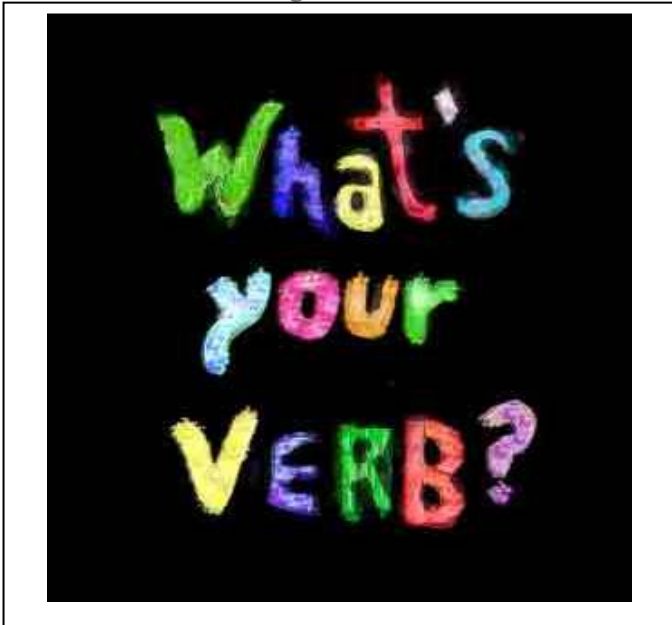

Know

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Run

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Want

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Eat

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Agree

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Write

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Believe

Use the verb to make a sentence about this picture. Talk only about "now".

Talk

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

I baked a cake for my mother last night. She _____ (love) cake.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

He _____ (run) because he is late for work.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

My friends _____ (believe) in aliens. They are sure they exist.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

Be quiet. John _____ (sleep).

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

That man has been to Tokyo many times. He _____ (know) the city quite well.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

She _____ (walk) home because she couldn't find a taxi.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

She _____ (remember) your name because she has a good memory.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

I _____ (write) a letter to my friend because I don't like to use email.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

This spaghetti _____ (taste) good. I want to eat more.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

I wouldn't go outside if I were you. It _____ (rain).

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

I'll never do that again. I _____ (promise).

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

That guy over there must be a business man. He _____ (wear) a shirt and tie.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

That's her car. It _____ (belong) to her.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

She _____ (drive) very slowly. Perhaps she has just passed her driving test.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

Freezing _____ (mean) "very cold".

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

The students _____ (enjoy) the lesson. They seem interested.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

I like Apple but I _____ (prefer) the Samsung.

- First, read the sentence.
- Then say the sentence out loud using the verb in parentheses.

He is a dangerous guy. He _____ (hold) a gun.

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What is the teacher wearing?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

How do you feel now?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What are you wearing?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What kind of food do you like?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

How are you feeling now?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What kind of movies do you like?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

Look out the window. What is happening outside?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What kind of music do you like?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What grammar are you learning about in this class?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

Why do hamburgers make people fat?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What is your father doing now?

(If you are not sure, just guess)

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

Why do most girls want to be slim?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What is your mother doing now?

(If you are not sure, just guess)

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What colour of eyes does the teacher have?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

Why are you learning English at this school?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What is the president of the USA called?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

Where is your best friend working / studying?

Answer this question using a complete sentence...

What do you hate most in the world?