

Note to the teacher:

- Cut these out individually. You need one set for each group.
- Each group has to choose the 3 most important factors they consider when looking for a partner.
- They must also choose the 3 least important factors they consider when looking for a partner.

They are intelligent.
They are rich.
They are romantic.
They buy you gifts regularly.
They go to (or went to) a good university.
They come from another country.
They have white skin.
They can protect you in dangerous situations.
They have a good job.
They are kind.
They are good looking.
They are funny.
They are calm and relaxed in most situations.
They have a good body.
They like the same things as you.
They wear expensive clothes.